- To tell the reader about the leopard
- To tell the reader about endangered animals
- To explain why farmers kill leopards

Then, look at these two pictures of a leopard at Big Cat Rescue named Sundari.

Now, answer the questions based on these pictures and the article. These pictures show the leopard resting in two different positions. Compare and contrast these pictures by telling what you think the leopard is doing in each, and, using the information from the article, explain why.
